

Fei Ren

Attorney

Practices: Dispute Resolution, Domestic and Overseas Investment

Working language: Chinese, English

Remarkable achievements

- Served as a legal counsel for COORD3 Industries, Italy, providing legal support for an equity transfer negotiation between the company and a large state-owned aerospace technology company in China
- Served as a legal counsel for Asja Ambiente Italia SpA., being responsible for various negotiations and approvals during the construction of the company's power plant, as well as the drafting of materials required by the carbon exchange
- Worked with an Italian law firm to offer professional opinions to many import and export companies between China and Italy on issues such as letters of credit, import and export contracts, work contracts and commercial papers
- Served as a legal counsel for Beijing Topnew Group, offering legal advice and settling disputes in its industrial transformation, to ensure the smooth implementation of the Tongnew Film Industrial Park project in Chaoyang District, Beijing
- Represented various film & television, advertising and design companies in litigations involving copyrights and winning, recovering losses for clients

Social duties

Project leader of the Belt and Road Working Group of the Chaoyang Lawyers' Association

Work experience

Fei Ren has years of management experience from multinational corporations, including CITIC Bank, Winterthur, etc. He joined Leaqual Law Firm in 2010, and had been involved in cases in the fields of mergers & acquisitions, credit and debt, and international trade since, thus accumulating rich experience. In January 2018, he joined Globe-Law Law Firm to work on corporate legal affairs and

 (8610) 8451-2800

 renfei@globe-law.com

 Beijing

foreign-related intellectual property.

Education

MBA, Bocconi University, Milan